

CEO TRAINING

"It's lonely at the top so you better know why you're there" – John Maxwell

PREFERRED TRAINING
NETWORKS

Who said "it's lonely at the top." It is certainly a truism. This course is usually conducted one on one with the CEO. Sometimes the EA attends too.

Your facilitator will take you through some proven organisational models. The CEO interrupts the facilitator when they want to flesh out a model. The course then tic-tacs to an idea generating session. The goal of the course is for the CEO to walk away with a couple of proven strategies to improve the organisation.

Previous CEO's have remarked that this niche course helps to clear the mind and focus on what's really important.
