

OHS Legal Obligations of Senior Management

The OHS Act 2004 now provides for senior managers and board members to be held personally liable for fines arising from breaches of the Act. Other provisions of the Act also provide for potential jail terms. So it is more important than ever for senior staff to be aware of their obligations.

Training Outcomes:

- Understand the obligations of senior management in regard to ensuring a safe workplace
- Apply knowledge to meet those obligations in a practical sense
- Agree reporting structures
- Remove reluctance and keep top of mind
- Case Studies analysis
- Explain the role of OHS policing departments
