

MANAGEMENT COACHING

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This program is ideal for your management team. They may be enthusiastic coaches already or your organisation may expect your management team to become more disciplined at coaching.

Consider your role for a second — what are you? A leader, a colleague, a coach, a trainer, a mentor, a manager? We use these words daily and often the different titles get muddled up.

To coach someone and see them grow as an employee is often regarded as one of the most rewarding things that a business leader can experience. After all, it's through your employees you achieve your goals. However, at a glance, coaching requires a lot of effort and time in a time poor world. How can you be an effective coach and get all your other tasks completed too?

This is an opportunity to learn from a coach that has trained and coached over 400 professionals from large Australian companies including Caltex, Qantas, Shell, Optus, Lend Lease, ANZ, City of Sydney, Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions, Aon Services, 3M Pharmaceuticals, Dept Finance. You will learn the shortcuts to being an excellent coach and reach new pinnacles of coaching.
